To the PUBLIC, New-York, Oct. 16, 1766

IT is now upwards of ſix Years that I have publiſh'd a weekly News Paper, under the Title of the New-York Gazette or Weekly Poſt-Boy, which I have the Pleaſure to think has been generally acceptable, and publicly uſeful: But having now Occaſion to alter the Title of my Paper, I hope for the ſame favourable Reception of the NEW-YORK JOURNAL or GENERAL ADVERTISER, that my Paper met with under the former Title; ſince it will be conducted with the ſame Spirit, and to the ſame Ends,—the Suppreſſion of Evil, and the Promotion of public and private Happineſs. The Reaſons of altering my Title are theſe, 1ſt, for the Sake of Diſtinction, as I am inform'd Mr. PARKER intends to publiſh a Paper under the former Title; and 2d, becauſe, as he formerly publiſh'd a Paper under that Title, I would not avail myſelf of any Advantages from a Name originally aſſumed by him. The Number, for the Sake of more eaſily ſettling with my Cuſtomers, will run regularly on from my laſt Week's Paper. JOHN HOLT.

New-York, April 30, 1767.

Mr. DAVID SHAW,

AS your Letter of March 1767, to all the Creditors of John Alexander and Company, contains many Paragraphs, entirely void of that Candour and Veracity which you profeſs, I muſt therefore, in Juſtice to myſelf, make a few Obſervations upon ſome of them in this public Manner; leſt (as you have already obſerved) Silence might be interpreted as an Acknowledgment of what you have aſſerted.

But as it would take up too much Time, for me, to point out every "deluſive Fallacy," with which every Page of your Letter is ſtuffed; I ſhall at preſent confine myſelf to a few Paragraphs.

The firſt that I ſhall take Notice of, is where you ſay, "Mr. Grigg, who, in the Concluſion of his "Letter, appeals to the Articles of Co-partnerſhip "againſt me, ſeems here to have forgot there were "any ſuch Articles.—If any Thing at all is evi"dent from theſe Articles, it is evident from the "third and fourth Articles, that the dry Goods "from Scotland, were a Company concern, im"ported at the Company's Riſque for their Benefit, "and not the ſole Property of Mr. Grigg."——In anſwer to which, I ſhall obſerve, that you ſigned thoſe Articles of Co-partnerſhip, which is a proof, you approved of them; conſequently I had a Right to expect you would have made them the Rule of your Conduct. Therefore when I find you have violated them, I may very juſtly accuſe you with it. But ſuppoſe, what you ſay could poſſibly be true, viz. "That I ſeem to have forgot that there were "any ſuch Articles," and at the ſame Time appealing to them: I ſay could this be poſſibly true, yet you have no Right to blame me, for not making thoſe Articles any Rule for my Conduct; becauſe you know I never ſigned them, and that my Reaſon for not doing it, was principally on Account of thoſe very Articles you have quoted. You know alſo, that I never would agree to have my Account with Meſſrs. Kelly and Company, made a Company Concern, unleſs the Company would ſuſtain all the Damages I was liable to, upon that Account, and as we never agreed upon that Subject, I never would ſign the Articles of Co-partnerſhip; therefore the third and fourth Articles could never have determined that Matter againſt me, notwithſtanding your aſſerting ſo very poſitively that they would.

Altho' the Epithets, falſe, unjuſt, diſregarding Truth, &c. may appear to you to be low Indecencies; yet as I may very often apply them to you with great Truth and Juſtice, I ſhall (even if they ſhould give you Offence) uſe them, when I find Occaſion; as for Inſtance, I may ſay it is falſe, where you ſay, "the Dry-Goods from Scotland were imported at the Company's Riſque." You are conſcious they were commiſſion'd ſome Months before the Commencement of the Co-partnerſhip, and that they arrived here by the Time it did commence. Had thoſe Goods been loſt on the Paſſage, I'm apt to think you'd never have claim'd the Merit of any Riſque.—I am the better convinced of this, by your Conduct to me in every Part of this Tranſaction: for until there was a Demand for this Money, you entered this Tranſaction as a Company Concern, but whenever you found there was an Order to reſund this Money, with Intereſt and Coſt of Suit; you entered it in my private Account; but if it be true what you ſay, viz. "the Company had taken "all that Tranſaction off his Hands;" why do you charge my Account with an Affair that did not concern me? Or, if the Company took all that Tranſaction off my Hands; why do you charge me with £.1102-10, loſt by that Tranſaction? Does not your Conduct carry ſtrong Marks of an Intention to have made my Share of the Prizes a Company Concern, had they been condemn'd? But as they were not found lawful Prizes, you thought proper to make at leaſt the Loſs to be a Concern of mine. Your own Account of this Affair ſhows a Want of Candour and Integrity.—Your charging me with the Intereſt of the Money borrowed, to pay Meſſrs. Kelly and Company, may certainly be called Injuſtice. Had I been deficient in my Proportion of £.6000, (the capital Stock) you certainly had a Right to charge me, Intereſt for any Money borrowed to make up my Deficiency; but as I can make it appear, that I had credit in the Company's Books at that Time, (or at leaſt a Right to it) for a conſiderable Sum above my Proportion, it is unjuſt to charge me with the Intereſt of the Money then borrowed. For if it was applied by the Company to my Uſe, yet they were only paying a Debt they owed to me; conſequently the Company ought to pay the Intereſt. You ſay, "Mr. Grigg tells our "Creditors, that in July 1761, he had Credit in the "Houſe for £.8,000, or upwards. Mr. Grigg "might with equal Juſtice have ſaid £.80,000, or "upwards." Would it had been ſo! Perhaps you might have been able to account with me for ſome ſmall Ballance of it; be that however, as it may, as ſoon as I am happy enough to procure a Settlement with the Creditors, I ſhall have the Juſtice of my Charges againſt the Company, determined by three, reputable Merchants of New-York, and the Public ſhall then know which of us has made the juſteſt Repreſentation.

You ſay, "the Company ran the Riſque of the "Rum from Antigua to New-York." I can prove that Mr. Bennin by my Orders, ſhipped and inſured that Rum on my Account, and directed it to the Care of John Alexander and Company. As to the Inaccuracies you point out,—if they really are ſuch as you repreſent them to be, they are Inaccuracies of your own; for the State that I have publiſhed, is taken from a Copy of my Account made out for me, by your Directions, about the Time we ſtopped payment.——And in that which I have publiſhed, I differ in nothing from the Copy abovementioned, except in ſtating that Tranſaction of the Dry-Goods from Scotland, and that of the Rum from Antigua; for doing which I have, (as I think) given very ſufficient Reaſons. The only Inaccuracy I have made in the State publiſhed, is omitting, in the Copy ſent to the Preſs, to charge the Company with £.762-19-9, for nine Caſks of Indigo ſold the 25th of June, 1761, (I believe it was to Mr. Rivington(by which Means the Ballance due by the Company to me, appears there to be only £.1959-13-2: Whereas it ought to be £.2722-12-11.—My living at a Diſtance from the Preſs, made it impoſſible for me to have that Error corrected before the Letters were publiſhed. I think it ſhows an uncommon Degree of Impudence in you to ſay, "as "the Company's Books (in which his Account is not "only ſtated, but every Article of it enter'd at the "particular Date and Time, when the Tranſaction "happened) were always at his Command; I am "ſurpriſed that Mr. Grigg could not in half an "Hour make a more juſt State of his Account."

If the Company's Books contain an exact and clear State of my Account, how comes it to paſs that the Copy of it given to me, is ſo very incorrect as you have ſet forth in your Letter? Or if the Books are ſo very conciſe, how comes it, that you, who may not only be look'd upon, from what you have ſaid, to be very correct and clear ſighted, but alſo more converſant in thoſe Books than I, have not found out, that I entirely ommitted to charge the nine Caſks of Indigo? Here you have been incorrect enough to miſtake one Tranſaction for another, for the £.563-8-5½, which I have charged, is for Indigo ſold Wm. Hyndman, in 1759; but the £.762-19-9, which I have omitted, are for Indigo ſold Mr. Rivington in 1761.

I have thought proper to make theſe few Obſervations upon ſome Parts of your late Performance, that the Public may judge more juſtly, what Truth and Candour runs thro' the whole.—As to what you may publiſh for the Future, I ſhall take no public Notice of it, till I enjoy more Liberty than I have at preſent, to vindicate my Aſſertions.

JOHN GRIGG.

LONDON, March 7.

THEY write from Hamburgh that several thousand Jews had lately arrived from different Parts of Germany and the Empire, to settle in the Dominions of his Prussian Majesty.

They write from Lisbon, that the Minister of Portugal continues to stand out against all the Remonstrances for abolishing certain Monopolies, which are thought prejudicial to the British Commerce in that Kingdom.

A Circular Letter of the King of Prussia, dated Cleves, Dec. 14, 1766, has just appeared at Berlin, by which his Majesty declares, "That having been informed that many persons are desirous of retiring from Switzerland into the province of Cleves, to rent farms, and establish different manufactures there, he therefore ordains, that without any regard to the religion they profess, they shall be well received and protected, and furnished with lodging and all Things proper for what they may undertake, relative to their establishment in the said Province."

They write from Toulon, than an order has been received from Court, for equipping several Frigates of War and Bomb-Ketches; and that the Marine Arsenals there abound with foreign ship timber.

JAMAICA, (in the W. Indies) Feb. 14.

CLARENDON. About Seven o'clock on Saturday Evening last, died at the Cross Mr. Robert Barrow, Merchant, his Death was occasioned by a Wound he received with his Sword, he unluckily having it unsheathed and bending the Blade upon the Edge of a Table towards his Body, by an unavoidable Fatality it slid off and went through the middle of his left Thigh; on withdrawing his Sword their issued out so great a Quantity of Blood, though there were then present several Gentlemen, his particular Friends, who gave him all the immediate Assistance possible, that he expired within the Space of a Minute; he is greatly lamented as he was remarkable for great Affability, Good-Nature and other social Virtues which endeared him to all his Acquaintance.—He was one of the best of Husbands, a tender and affectionate Parent, so that his inconsolable Widow and Children have sustained an unspeakable Loss by his sudden and unexpected Death.

BOSTON, April 27.

The following is a Copy of a Letter from his Grace the Duke of Richmond, to the Speaker of the late House of Representatives.

SIR, Whitehall, Nov. 27, 1766.

THE Letter you did me the honour to write to me on the 20th of June last, was sent after me to Paris, (where I was gone to take leave of the Court) which prevented my receiving, and acknowledging it sooner.

Permit me now, Sir, to desire you to take the first opportunity of laying before the House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusets-Bay, the high sense I have of the honour they have done me, in the vote of thanks which you transmitted to me. Such a mark of their approbation of my conduct in relation to the British colonies, is undoubtedly very flattering to me: For altho' I can claim no other merit than that of heartily concurring in the many and important points that were so carefully attended to, and so determinedly carried thro' by the last administration; yet it is a great satisfaction to me to find that I was right in my persuasion that those measures would not only restore tranquility to the colonies, but also produce great benefits to them, and returns of gratitude to the mother country. This compliment to so inconsiderable an assistant in those transactions as myself, is a proof of the disposition of your Province to the latter; the first we have already seen to take effect; and I trust from the accounts that are already received, that the advantages arising to America from the acts passed last session of parliament will ever be equal to the good intentions of those who planned them.

In whatever station I may be in, it will always be my wish to see the prosperity of his Majesty's American dominions rise to the greatest height, both on their account, and because of the advantages that must necessarily result from thence to the mother country.

I cannot conclude, Sir, without begging of you to accept my best thanks for the polite manner in which you communicated to me this Vote.

I am, Sir, with great Esteem,
Your most obedient,
Humble Servant,
RICHMOND.

To THOMAS CUSHING, Esq; Speaker to the Honourable House of Representatives of his Majesty's Province of Massachusetts-Bay.

Extract of a Letter from Dennys De Berdt, Esq; directed to the Speaker of the late House of Representatives, dated 14th of Feb. last, which may serve to quiet the minds of many Persons that have been lately disturbed with Apprehensions of Troops being sent here to keep them in order.

SIR,

"SINCE my receiving your judicious, pertinent and decent Representation of the Difficulties your Trade laboured under, I have had several Conferences with Lord Shelburne on the Subject of it, who has been so obliging as to direct me to lay the Case before him, in Form of a Memorial, with which his own Secretary will attend me to the Board of Trade, and has promis'd his Interest to serve you, which Memorial now lies before his Lordship.—The Restraints laid on the Fishery will be removed.

"The Government are about to call Home the Troops from America, and place others in their Room. The preparing for the Embarking of which has occasioned much Speculation here, and to America, which occasioned my particular Application to Lord Shelburne on that Head, who was so condescending and obliging as to assure me, I might satisfy all my Friends that there was no Intention of augmenting the Forces in America, but a mere Exchange."——

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend in Boston, dated Feb. 14, 1767.

THE affair of the Opposition to the Custom House Officers, and the proceedings in your Town Meeting, with some other Transactions, on your side the water, will probably be attended with disagreeable consequences; I mean to the violent and seditious only (some who have been the principals are already mark'd out) for I am sure no measures will be taken here but such as tend to secure the future peace and tranquility of the colonies, and to the protection of every one's person and property (who conform themselves to the laws of their country) against a set of rabble, encouraged and abetted only by a set of enthusiastic madmen, who under the cloak of Liberty have done such things, as would not have been suffer'd in any state, Christian or pagan upon earth. I am glad to find that the victims to the sons of riot, are to receive some satisfaction for the injuries they have received, I say some, for I cannot call it full, as the authors of the calamity are to be indemnified for what they have done; however it is certain, that e're long such measures will be taken, tho' ever so contrary to the opinion of some among you, that they will find the Parliament of Great-Britain have not only a right to make laws respecting the colonies, in all cases whatever, but they will also find that they have power to carry such laws into execution, and to punish all violaters of the same, and all disturbers of the public peace whatsoever.——The New-York Remonstrance gave great offence, and there is something full as disagreeable expected from your Province." [A Gr-nv-ll-n!]

We hear from Rhode-Island, that the Hon. STEPHEN HOPKINS, Esq; has a Majority of 414 Votes in favour of his being chose Governor of that Colony at the ensuing Election, in the Room of the Hon. SAMUEL WARD, Esq; their present Governor.

We hear that JOHN WILLIAMS, Esq; of this Place, now in London, is appointed Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs in North-America.——'Tis said Commissioners of the Customs are also shortly to be appointed, to reside in America, and that Charles Paxton, Esq; is nominated as one of them.

To the PRINTERS.

THE Public may rest assured that there are authentic accounts received by the last Packet, very favourable to the Colonies, The M— have been pleased very kindly to receive the representations for our late House, instead of ordering them burnt unopened, as was given out last week, and industriously circulated by —— and his friends. The strongest assurances have also been given that all our grievances shall be redressed, and the real procuring cause of them speedily removed. Tis certain, that the inflexible Patriot Lord Ch-th-m continues his noble patronage of North-America, notwithstanding the infamous insults he is daily receiving from the inveterate enemies of two worlds, "for no other crime" but that he has twice saved both from the jaws of perdition.

New-York, 5th May, 1767.

SIR,

IN Answer to your uncandid Letter in last Journal, permit me to observe, that the same Spirit of Indecency and Insincerity, that dictated your first Letter has produced this; and that you are determined these shall supply the Place of Argument, and Misrepresentations, the Place of Truth; as I hope here to make evident to every impartial Reader;—that your and Mr. Alexander's printed Letter, was not only stuffed in every Page, but also in every Paragrah, with "DELUSIVE FALLACIES," I hope I have in my Answers fully evinc'd, to the Satisfaction of every candid Peruser of both,—and tho' I find your present Attempt is with a View to amuse the Public from paying that Attention to my Refutation, which it merits; yet I hope Truth will force it's Way, though all the Opposition of Delusion and Error.

As to the Affair of the Sugars, and the Dry-Goods, from Scotland; it requiring more Room and Time than is proper to take up in a News-Paper, to give a minute Detail of, must refer such as may want to be satisfied on that Head, to my printed Answer to your said Letter; and shall only observe here—That thereby it will clearly appear that both the Sugars sent to Scotland, and the Dry-Goods received in Return, were Company Concerns, by the 3d and 4th Articles of our agreed Co-partnership; which you never refused to sign, as I can prove; which did from the very opening of the Books, and still does as such, (without any Notandum, or Remarks of any Thing to the Contrary) stand in the Company's Books,—That we at first made ourselves Debtors to Messrs. Kelly and Company, for the full Value of these Sugars, and paid them when due. That our charging you with the Loss on your Prizes, is a mere Fiction of your own, no such Entry being in the Books, nor ever made against you by us; for we had no Concern with that Affair.——In a Word, was there any Error this Way, you should throw your Dirt not on me, but on your Attorney, Mr. Alexander, who was always present, had more to say at that Time than I, was solely entrusted by you, that every Thing should be conducted agreeable to the foresaid Articles.—But the Delusion of all your Logick on this Subject, is too Conspicuous to obtain the Credit of any thinking Person.—And after all this Noise, was the Transaction to be placed in your own Way, it would not differ your Account a Hundred Pounds.

I will tamely suffer to be branded with the odious Epithet of "Injustice," if I do not shew to the Conviction of any three reputable Merchants, that I have not charged your Account with near the Interest I had, and have a Right to do in Equity; and that in May 1761, you had only £. 1476, in the Company, in Place of £. 2700, which should have been your Part of the Capital; and that you never had this Capital near complete, unless you call once you had, but drawn out next Day, be completing the same.

I come next to the poor Apology you offer, or rather your mean and uncandid Evasive, for the many and gross Errors you committed in the printed State of your Account current.——I deny my ever drawing out or sending you your Account, and I defy you to shew the Contrary; And I appeal to Messrs. Smith and Scuyler, then Clerks in the Store, that your Account was by them drawn out, by Mr. Alexander's and your own particular Orders; and I have seen you myself (as I dare say they also did) compare it with the Books; and I have Reason to believe it was justly and correctly made out; however, you may have mutilated it to answer your own sinister Ends. After this, how unfair is it in you, to atone for your own Blunders or intentional Errors, by accusing me, who you know had no Hand therein.—

Now as to your Indigo Affair, I must own it's no Master-Piece, tho' intended as such; the Fallacy being too glaring to escape Notice.—In my Remarks on your foresaid Account of Errors, I discovered a Mistake you made to your own prejudice of taking Credit (for Indigo of yours we sold) only for £. 563-8-5.——Whereas it ought to have been £. 762-19-9; which last Sum is at your Credit in the Books, as sold Mr Rivington in 1761. Now (to use your own delicate Words again) with "an "uncommon Degree of Impudence," indeed, you endeavour to pervert this Discovery to Answer your Ends, but with little Judgment; your curious Comment on that Matter, concludes in the following Words, to wit, "how comes it you have not found "out that I entirely omitted to charge the Nine "Casks of Indigo? Here you have been incorrect "enough to mistake one Transaction for another, "for the £. 563-8-5, which I have charged, is for "Indigo, sold William Hyndman, in 1759; but "the £. 762-19-9, which I have omitted, are for "Indigo sold Mr. Rivington, in 1761." Whereas your incorrectness is at first Sight evident from charging the first, (which we had no Manner of Concern with) in Place of the last which, I discovered to you: For pray what had the Company to do with Indigo sold to Mr. Hyndman, 12 Months before the Commencement of their Co-partnership? Sure you could not expect it at your Credit in their Books? However, further to amuse your Creditors and the Public, you are, "clear sighted "enough to take Credit for both these Sums, and to "create your fictitious Balance of £. 1959-13-2, by "the Addition of the largest Sum, so that now it is "swelled to £. 2722-11-1; if you go on thus, you "in Time make it formidable indeed, and very soon "£. 8,000," or perhaps more, but you mention not a Word of the Omissions you made on the debit Side of your Account, of all the Dry Goods, Wine, Rum, Sugars, &c. you had from the Store in Six Years, which amounts to about a Thousand Pounds. In a Word, your Blunders are so many and great, and you State your Account so much at Random, that you'll best drop the Subject; and submit yourself to the just and equitable Balance in the Company Books, which I am ready to prove to the Conviction of any three Merchants of Character, to be right, and that the same exceeds not £. 550.——Whatever Way you may take to fabricate it otherwise, or disguise Facts.—And now I leave it to the Public which of us merits most the Indecent Epithets you are so liberal in bestowing on me; and I appeal to all who have read your first Letter and mine, whether you have advanced any Thing, but what is there clearly and fully refuted; and give me Leave, Sir, to tell you, that whatever Language you may make use off, or however you may mutilate Facts or misrepresent Circumstances, as long as I am permitted to replace them in their true Light, it never will be in your Power to Invalidate any Part of my first or second Letter to our Creditors.—Let me add, Sir, that all your own, and Mr. Alexander's mighty Sputter and Noise, in officiously and impertinently troubling the Public, with Matters quite foreign to them, is to impose on them and your Creditors a Belief, that you have sunk more Money in the Company, than really you have, and to gratify your Resentment against me, because I displaced the State of your Affairs in their genuine Colours, which Justice to our Creditors and myself obliged me to do;—and I must say further, that both of you were as solicitous in doing your Creditors that Justice you owe them, as you are in devolving all Blame from off your own Shoulders upon mine, however unmerited; it would have redounded more to your Honour and Credit, in the Eyes of all good Men, and your Creditors would very sensibly have felt the good Effects of your Care, by receiving a considerable Part of their Demands long before this Time; besides preventing continued Expences upon and irretrievable heavy Losses to the Estate; a material Consideration, well meriting the Attention of the Creditors; all which Losses I can appeal to the Gentlemen Assignees, and other principal Creditors, I have all along laboured to prevent.

And as to your declared Resolution of not answering me publicly any more, I think you judge well, unless you can do it with more Propriety and Truth, than has hitherto graced your Performances on this Subject. I am, Sir yours, &c. DAVID SHAW.

NEW-YORK, May 7.

On Sunday Night last, Capt. Kipp arrived here in a Schooner, from Jamaica, in 42 Days: He sailed from thence in Company with the Active Frigate for England, having Cash on board on Account of the Merchants, to the Amount of £. 200,000. About 25 Days since Capt. Kipp left at Aneaga, the Sloop Industry, of Boston; and the Ship Black Prince, belonging to Rhode-Island, both well.

Capt. John Marshall, in a Brig belonging to this Port, and who has been a missing Vessel for many Months past, was well at Teneriffe the 4th of Feb. last.

Capt. M'Kenzie, in a Ship of this Place, put into the Downs last February, in a very leaky Condition, insomuch, that he was obliged to throw Part of his Cargo overboard: He was bound from the Baltick to Ireland.

Capt. M'Connell, of the Brig Experiment, bound from hence for Portaferry, in Ireland, was killed on the Passage by Means of several Bruises he received in the Sides and Head, against the Quarter Rails, by the rolling of the Vessel in a Gale of Wind.

Captain Simonton, mentioned in our last, who with his Mate and several of his Crew; came here Passengers with Capt. Houston; gives the following Account, viz. That being in a Ship bound from the Western-Islands for Casco Bay, on his Voyage home, off Cape-Breton, in the Month of Feb. last, lost his Masts, by Means of which his Decks were so prodigiously rent, that he took in much Water, and his Rudder giving Way at the same Time, was reduced to the greatest Extremity, and lived for 27 Days on Cod Fish alone; but were happily relieved by meeting with Capt. Christopher Miller, of this Port, in a Brig bound for Dublin, who treated him with great Humanity, and where, on his arrival he and his People were supplied by the Merchants with both Cash and Necessaries for their Voyage to North-America.

On Thursday last sailed from this Port, the Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Jefferies, with whom went Passenger, Captain JAMES DE LANCEY, Esq;

Last Friday Ralph Izard, Esq; was married to Miss Alice De Lancey, second Daughter of Peter De Lancey, Esq; of Westchester.

On Sunday last, sailed for London, the Ship Edward, Captain Lawrence, with whom went Passengers Mr. Seaton, and his Lady, and Mr. Houlton, Merchant; and Yesterday sailed also, for London, the Hope, Capt. Davies, with whom went Passengers Major Cary and his Lady, and several others.

Tuesday arrived here the Brig Providence, Capt. Linthorn, in 7 Weeks from Pool: The 8th of April, in Lat. 39, 42, Lon. 56, 8, he spoke with a Brig from London, bound for Boston, 5 Weeks out; the next Day in Lat. 39, 48, Lon. 57, 58, with a Brig from South-Carolina for London, 11 Days out and on the 24th following, in Sight of the Land, they fell in with a Brig from Jamaica bound for New-London; all well on board each Vessel, but learnt none of the Captain's Names.

Capt. Robinson, in a Snow from this Port, for the Bay of Honduras, was spoke with the 7th of April, off Turk's Island, by a Sloop that passed by here last Week, in her Way to Rhode-Island.

The Circuit Courts are appointed to be held as follow,

At the Court-House at Richmond-Town, for the County of Richmond, Thursday the fourteenth Day of May Instant.

For the County of Orange, at the Court-house in Orange-Town, on Tuesday the second Day of June next.

And being desirous to rectify them and restore their Church to its ancient Prosperity, Lustre and Dignity: After solemn Humiliations, Fastings, and Prayers, before the Throne of Grace, with all those among their People, who thought proper to join them; they have agreed at last, and judged it the only remaining Remedy, to erect a Seminary or College, in which the American Youth might be regularly educated after the Manner, and Custom of the United Provinces, and other Protestant Reformed European Churches, where from their Ancestors proceeded; and to dedicate the most pious and capable to the weighty Gospel Function, whereby the Goodness, and Happiness of the numerous Body of the Dutch People, might be completed, in respect of their Loyalty, Industry and Christian Religion. It also pleased the King of Kings, in whose Hands the Hearts of Kings are, and who promised that the Kings should be nursing Fathers, and their Queens nursing Mothers, to the Church, to Favour the humble Address of the Ministers and Elders, to his Excellency William Franklin, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majesty's Province of New-Jersey, &c. whereby they have obtained his Majesty's Letters Patent, and Charter or Royal Grant, bearing Date the 10th Day of November, 1766, to erect a College called Queen's College in the Province of New-Jersey; and a Corporation, or Body Politic, together with all the Privileges, Powers, Authorities, and Rights belonging thereunto, as is customary and lawful in any Colleges, in his Majesty's Realm of Great-Britain. THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1767.

LONDON, February 20.

HIS Grace the Duke of Bedford has, at his own Expence, clothed the Poor of ſeven Pariſhes in Bedfordſhire, the Men with Suits of Clothes, Shoes and Stockings; the Women and Children with Gowns, Petticoats, Shoes and Stockings. His Grace has alſo given Orders to his Stewards there to ſupply all the Poor at 4s. per Buſhel.

Sherborne, Jan. 12. A melancholy Affair happened laſt Tueſday Night in the Pariſh of Lelant, Cornwall, and is thus related: A young Man of the ſaid Pariſh, a Tinner, ſome Time ſince enliſted himſelf a Soldier, and very lately (his Regiment then lying at Plymouth) he obtained a Furloe to go home and viſit his Friends at Lelant; but having tarried too long, took a Reſolution not to return to his Company. However, a Part of the Regiment being at Penzance, received Information of the ſaid Deſerter, and accordingly the informer, with ſeveral Soldiers, went to his Father's Houſe in the Night, and complained of being in great Want of a Light; when out of good Nature to ſupply him, he lighted a Candle, and gave Admittance into the Houſe; no ſooner was the Door opened, but they all ruſhed into the Houſe, and immediately a Piſtol was fired, and Murder cried. The Family, conſiſting of the Deſerter, his Father, Mother, and Brother, took to what Weapons they had; the Brother was cut down dead on the Spot; the Father and Mother are ſtabbed with a Bayonet in ſuch a Manner, that it is thought they cannot recover. After the Death of the Brother, the Deſerter fled out of the Houſe at a back Window, naked, ran to a Tin-mine, and went down to the Bottom by the Rope. When he came down, the Miners at Work perceived that his Entrails were coming out, and immediately had him taken up and put to a Houſe. It is thought that this Affair will be the Death of a whole Family, conſiſting of four Perſons. But it is hoped, that Juſtice will be executed on the Perpetrators.

SCOTLAND.

EDINBURGH, Jan. 26, Laſt Poſt brought Letters from the Coaſt of Lincolnſhire, relative to the Ship Betſey, which we hear in all Probability will be got off. The Account of a great Part of the Cargo being plundered by the Country People is confirmed. They were ſo rapacious, and ſo numerous, that they bid Defiance to many Gentlemen, and to the Clergymen of the Place, who intereſted themſelves greatly in the Preſervation of what could be ſaved. A great deal of theſe Goods, we are told, are recovered, and it is expected little will be loſt in that Way, except the Specie on board, which amounted to a very conſiderable Sum, and of which no Account as yet has been had. A Perſon is ſuſpected of carrying off great Part of it, as in the Midſt of the Diſtreſs he was obſerved buſy in breaking open the Captain's Cheſt and Lockfaſts, where moſt of the Specie was depoſited.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) January 30.

The 29th of january inſtant, came to anchor in this port, the ſloop George, Capt. Jeremiah Rogers, bound from Halifax to New-York, blown off the coaſt by ſtreſs of weather. Being obliged to put into Porto Rico the 15th Inſtant, having only a few biſkets and gallons of water on board; upon ſending the boat on ſhore to get relief, no notice being taken of the ſignal made by the ſloop, the mate and ſailors in the boat were detained as priſoners, and the boat was ſent back by their own people, commanded, by a Lieutenant of a Guarda Coſta, who boarded the veſſel and made the Capt. and all on board priſoners, with a ſtrong guard on deck; then went into the cabin and opened trunks and boxes belonging to the paſſengers, and carried away ſundry effects & money belonging to them, as alſo goods belonging to the veſſel: In the afternoon of the 17th inſtant, being under way, a Spaniſh frigate brought the ſloop to anchor, firſt firing a ſhot to leeward, and ſent the boat with 8 or 9 hands armed, commanded by a petty officer, who ordered the Captain and paſſengers to go on board the Spaniſh veſſel, which they were compell'd to do; and during the time the Captain was ſhewing his credentials, the officer and his people were commiting many acts of piracy and barbarity on board the ſloop. A lady was ſo frightened, that ſhe fell down and was very much hurt; ſhe was turned out of the cabin, till they had rifled and taken away many things; and would not even ſuffer any of the people belonging to the ſloop to hale the ſhip; and after complaining to the Captain of the frigate, no redreſs was obtained, but a peremptory demand was made to ſend on board his veſſel a barrel of Mackrel as a paſs.

It is to be obſerved, that the Governor of St. Domingo was on board, who ſaid, "it was not in his "power to give any relief, being only a paſſenger;" it was therefore thought more prudent to leave ſuch an inhoſpitable coaſt, than make any further attempts for relief, having a periſhable cargo on board. The allowance from the 8th to the 15th was only one biſket and two quarts of water a man per day. The above account is taken from a copy of the Captain's proteſt.

On Thurſday morning, between one and two o'clock, a great earthquake was felt in many parts of this Iſland; but we do not hear of any damage being done.
